

Aiello Swears In 50 Minute Men; Bates Is Captain

A company of Minute Men for the defense of Greenbelt were sworn in last week by Col. Caesar Aiello at the Greenbelt Auditorium. Recruited in the space of three weeks the Greenbelt company numbered 52 men, with permission to expand up to 100.

Harry Bates was appointed acting captain of the Greenbelt company. Two more commissioned officers will be named later—a first and a second lieutenant. Non-commissioned officers are being selected now, and will include a first sergeant, supply sergeant, two line sergeants, and two platoon sergeants, and six corporals. There will be three squads to a platoon, and two platoons to the company.

Col. Aiello promised the men that uniforms, guns and ammunition would be issued within a short time, so that the training program may become effective for actual defense conditions. Minute Men constitute a reserve state militia or civilian home guard, and serve only in time of emergency and only in their home area.

52 Mustered

Greenbelt men mustered in the new company are:

Food Store Weighs Rubber In Salvage Drive for War

By PHIL WEXLER

All scrap rubber collected by Greenbelters in accordance with the President's salvage request should be taken to the food store in the Shopping Center for weighing and then delivered to the service station. A price of 1 cent per pound will be paid at the service station for all rubber brought in.

Notice

All members of the Civilian Defense Medical Service who have not yet been fingerprinted are requested to report to the Fire House tonight, June 19, between 7:30 and 8:30 in order to have their prints officially recorded. All of the auxiliary police and firemen have had their fingerprints taken. There are, as yet, about 100 wardens who will be fingerprinted in the near future.

July 4th Parade

The Defense Corps will have a full display of men and equipment in the July 4th parade which is being sponsored by Citizens' Association. As the parade will take place at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday it affords people who may be working that day an opportunity to participate in this colorful event. George Panapoulis has been placed in charge to coordinate all defense units for marching and display purposes. Plans are being formulated to have an open house that day for the public to come into the Fire House to observe the fingerprinting device and other equipment vital to defense work which the Corps has already purchased.

Homeowners Appeal F. H. A. Loan Decision

Greenbelt's homeowners cooperative has appealed the refusal of the Federal Housing Agency to grant the building loan requested, President Edgar McVoy reported this week. No reply has been received yet, and several members express themselves as dubious of any further building possibility for the duration of the war.

Prospective home builders on the Woodland Way extension area have until July 1 to secure favorable loan action from FHA. On that date their present building contract expires. In view of the tightening priorities and other restrictions it is thought improbable that building operations will be possible much after that date.

Report

Mr. Panagoulis also reported that arm bands for the police and firemen have already been received—and that arm bands for the medical corps, messengers, and others, will be purchased within two weeks. Thomas Ricker, chief of the Motor Unit, reports that the county chief has notified him that they are ready to equip four ambulances for Greenbelt defense but, the question arises once again—where are we going to get four ambulances or vehicles to serve as such? It seems, however, that one actual and one improvised ambulance will prove sufficient for our needs at present.

Flash

A pamphlet prepared by local air-raid wardens containing all the necessary information relative to blackouts, air raids, medical treatment for possible injuries, etc., may soon be available to every resident in town. The Corps has notified the finance committee to investigate the possible cost of printing this pamphlet. Dr. James McCarl, chief of communications, advises that his Boy Scouts and messengers will be in the July 4th parade as well as on duty during all blackouts and air-raid alarms.

New Corps Personnel

In all probability Dr. William Eisner will replace Dr. Joseph Silacv as Medical Service chief. Mrs. Virginia Harris, 18-P Ridge Road, has replaced Mrs. Margaret Miller as conservation chief. Philip Wexler has replaced Francis Foshnight as chief of information.

Summer Dance Features Soloist, King's Orchestra

Rose Marie Shiller, Washington night club entertainer, will be featured at tomorrow night's dance in the Auditorium. She will sing at intervals during the evening. Jack King and his 5-piece orchestra will provide the dance music.

A public address system for music amplification, and refreshments are being arranged by Robert C. Howe for the affair.

Sponsored by the Greenbelt Citizens' Association, the dance is especially designed to bring out the town's new families. James Smith, chairman of the ways and means committee, specified that any surplus from this dance will go into the general fund of the Citizens' Association to make up for the loss taken on other dances of the past. He anticipates a particularly large crowd at this June 20 dance because gas and fire shortages have made local entertainment more appreciated.

Advance sale of tickets is continuing through tomorrow at 45 cents until dance time. Admission at the door will be 50 cents. A list of Greenbelters with tickets for sale was published in last week's Cooperator.

Dancing will be from 10 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Sewage Disposal Plant Is Doubled

A duplicate sewage disposal plant, now under construction, will be completed in late July or early August to care for Greenbelt's new defense houses, Harry W. Rhodes, director of public works, told the Cooperator yesterday.

The new facilities will cost about $65,000. Installations now proceeding will more than double the handling capacity of the plant. The present capacity of 400,000 gallons per day is being strained to the limit, Mr. Rhodes said, with an increase of about 30 per cent since the new houses were built. A flow of one million gallons of sewage per day can be treated by the expanded plant when it is completed.

The additions are being built just east of the present plant, and will include a new primary settling tank, a trickling filter, a final settling tank, a sludge digester.

Goldfaden Fills Recreation Job

Ben Goldfaden, 6-T Ridge Road, moves up to fill the director of recreation job vacated by Vincent Holochwost. This promotion left an opening on the staff, and John T. Picco was taken on as assistant director of recreation. Mrs. Doris Armstrong remains as senior assistant director.

Mr. Picco is well known to most of active Greenbelt, having worked at the Pool and Lake during the past two summers. He was graduated from George Washington University, where he starred in baseball and football. He has a B. S. degree in physical education. The Spring Valley, Ill., boy should fit in well all around, and especially with the Shamrocks' pennant aspirations.

In his position of recreation director for the town, Mr. Goldfaden will supervise swimming, baseball, softball, tennis, archery, hiking, basketball, touch football, etc. He will also teach physical education classes in the Elementary School.

400 Children Overwhelm Free Swim Classes

Nearly four hundred children registered for swimming lessons this week at the Greenbelt Pool, Recreational Director Ben Goldfaden reports. Instead of meeting daily as in previous years, classes will be staggered for two or three lessons a week because of the overwhelming response to the announcement of free instructions.

A large number of boys and girls coming too late for registration in the present groups were advised to enter a class beginning about July 6. If the pool remains open all summer new classes are planned for two-week intervals throughout the season.

About 65 per cent of the children registered were assigned to the beginner's class after swimming tests were given at the time of registration. Forty per cent of the children are 5 and 6 year olds.

Children have been instructed to attend classes regularly. Any child missing more than two lessons will be dropped unless he brings a physician's certificate for illness. A child with a cold or other illness that prevents him from entering the water should come and watch the class, Mr. Goldfaden said. Participation credit will be given for this.

Assisting Mrs. Doris Armstrong with classes this year are Guards George Keat, Peter La Buchas, and John Di Janni. Adults interested in registering should see Mrs. Armstrong at the pool during the forenoon.

Gala July 4 Planned But No Fireworks

July 4 will be observed in Greenbelt with a parade, games, a band concert, and speeches, Stan Ostler, president of the Citizens' Association, announced today. Festivities will start at 1 p.m. and all activities will be at the Shopping Center and at Braden Field this year.

Prizes to be awarded for games and contests among the children will be in defense stamps. Similar awards will be made for parade costumes and decorations.

The parade this year will be held in the early evening, starting at 6:45. Civilian defense units and the new Greenbelt company of Minute Men are expected to march in the parade, together with floats by civic organizations, and decorated wagons, bicycles and tri-cycles.

Baseball game

Of course, there will be the usual July 4 baseball game. This one will be played by the Shamrocks and a team from Fort Myer at 3 p.m.

Games and contests for the children of Greenbelt will be supervised at Braden Field by Ben Goldfaden, Doris Armstrong and L. H. Widger. These will start at 1 p.m. and last two hours.

All prizes will be awarded at the Handball Court, back of the Swimming Pool. Several speeches and the warding of prizes are scheduled for 8 p.m. A band concert will follow.

A proposed picnic lunch to be served by the parents board of the Greenbelt Band is under consideration. This would be served at 5:30.

Due to the war there will be none of the usual fireworks, Mr. Ostler announced.

G. H. A. Will Appoint New Physician Soon

The Greenbelt Health Association has not yet accepted any of the applicants for the medical staff vacancies following Dr. Joseph Silagy's departure. Applications are still being received and it is hoped that a physician can be selected either at the meeting of the board this week or at the next meeting.

At present Dr. William Eisner is attempting to maintain the regular schedule of office hours and is on call at all times. Dr. Eisner has been authorized by the board to contact Dr. Winik of Washington to serve part-time during this emergency as he has done occasionally in the past.

It is expected that a new director will be elected at the board meeting this week. In the future the board plans to have its semi-monthly meetings on the first and third Thursdays of each month.

Apology to New Residents

To the residents of a large number of the new defense houses—our humble apologies for not delivering the Cooperator to your doors until this week. It was a bit of carelessness in the circulation department that came to our attention this week as quite a shock. We probably would not have caught it even at this time if we did not continue to have new residents ask how they could subscribe to the paper.

The town paper is free to all residents. It is delivered to your door each Friday so that you may have the news about your neighbors and your community. The news, sports, editorials and features are written by some of your neighbors who work from two to 12 hours a week without pay. Some of them like newspaper work—the rest are just suckers maybe. But we do get out a paper for you, and we have been doing it for five years without missing a week. This is an unusual record for a volunteer amateur paper, and will compensate perhaps for some of our other shortcomings.

Nobody owns or runs the Cooperator except the people who work on the staff. Anyone in town can work on the staff. It is, then, as nearly your paper as we can make it. If you like it—fine. If you don't like it—please tell us what you don't like and suggest improvements. You can put your suggestions, together with any news items you may pick up, in the Cooperator box behind the west door of the drug store or through the mail slot in the door of our office. The office is in room 202 over the drug store, and is open Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights from 8 p. m. until 11 p. m. or sometimes 2 a. m.

And if you don't get your paper—or your neighbor is missed by the carrier, let us know that too.

---Or You'll Be Walking

Mr. Rysticken reports that only 10 per cent of the questionnaires mailed out by the town administration office in the bus survey have been returned. As the hearing comes in July it is urgently requested that all residents turn in their questionnaires at once so that the necessary information may be gathered for presentation to the court. For those who may have misplaced or lost the original questionnaire sent through the mail, copies may be obtained at the administration office.

Mr. Rysticken believes that there are certainly "more than 10 per cent of the people of this town who are interested in obtaining and keeping good transportation facilities. If we want to win our case we need the information asked for in the questionnaire. Tell the people to send them in pronto".

Transportation is still Greenbelt's No. 1 problem. Need we say more?

Scrap for the Japs

We heard an interesting story recently. No one mentioned the originator's name or we would gladly give him credit for it. However, let me tell it as I heard it:

"Mr. and Mrs. Jones were ordinary folks, lived an ordinary life, and their pride and joy was their only son, Thomas. During his childhood, little Tommy got into all sorts of trouble and narrowly escaped death three times because of a bed spring. The first time it happened, Tommy, who had been playing on his bed, jumped just a little too hard. The spring gave way and the boy's wrist became entangled in the coils. One coil broke and cut into Tommy's hand and the blood ran freely. The doctor who attended him said he was lucky he had not bled to death before treatment was offered.

"Mr. and Mrs. Jones decided to do away with the bed spring and had it placed in a secluded spot in their barn. But, as children play, so did Tommy, and one day while swinging over the hayrack the rope broke and he landed head first on the rusty sharp coils of the forgotten spring bed. Again the doctor informed the parents that they were lucky to have their son returned to them alive.

"The Jones' decided that the metal bed spring must be

Free Speech and Military Secrets

This is war, and our right of free speech needs to be modified individually by each and every one of us where information of aid and comfort to the enemy is concerned. We have had many attractive posters warning us to keep our mouths closed about military information such as troop movements, ship sailings, production figures, and government plans. We have been warned often enough by now to make further admonitions unnecessary—but we still talk too much.

Recently we had a former staff member, an employee of a vital war agency in Washington, tell us quite casually (although quite confidentially, of course) the time and place of sailing of a troopship. This is not exceptional. On the street cars, in automobiles, at restaurant tables, enough war information is handed out free to any eavesdropper to make any real spy give up his professional rating and go back to amateur work.

Most of the talk here comes from the little people in the Government service—the CAF-2 and 3 clerks and stenographers who are just close enough to the war effort to boast an importance to their friends that they do not have. Any person really on the inside knows the value of confidential information available, and will keep his knowledge to himself. Any person eager to tell all he knows of what our real losses are, or what is really being planned, immediately shows he knows very little. He is one of the little fellows, eager to show off the crumbs of information he has picked up. Some of those crumbs may cost the lives of his friends and neighbors.

Don't be a show-off. You can make a better impression of your importance to the war effort by keeping your information to yourself. Loose talk is sabotage.

done away with and Mr. Jones buried it in their back yard. Now, at last, there would be no danger of Tommy's being hurt again by that bedspring. But, unfortunately, Tommy was an active soul, and while digging in his back yard one day he scratched his hand on part of the coiled spring. Blood poisoning set in and once again he fought for his life.

"Tommy's parents dug up the spring and sold it to a junk dealer who exported scrap metal. The boy grew up and finished school. When war broke out he enlisted, and, at present, Tommy is on active duty at the front. Feeling uneasy about the bedspring which seemed to foreshadow Tommy's life as a boy, his mother went to see the junk dealer one day not long ago. The exporter informed her that although he no longer dealt with enemy countries, the batch of metal (including the bedspring) had been sent to Japan.

"Mrs. Jones left the store in a daze wondering whether her ill-fated Tommy would some day fall wounded or be killed by munitions manufactured in Japan from the bedspring which on three other occasions almost took Tommy's life away."

Many of our relatives and friends will be killed by exported American scrap in this war. We can do nothing about that now. We can, however, make the most careful search of our households for any remaining scrap for our own Government. Any junk dealer will pay you for scrap metal, rubber, and rags.

Community Church

"Your Church and You" is the title of the sermon on which Rev. Wilmer Pierce Johnston will preach to the class of 20 or more of the young people who graduated from the elementary school this year and who are now uniting with the church. The sermon has been prepared especially for the new members who will sit in seats reserved for them. They will wear their graduation dresses and suits for the occasion.

The Children's Day program will be observed this Sunday at 8 p.m. It will consist of a pageant entitled "The Lost World." The pageant will include the Junior Choir, consisting of about 50 children, who will sing throughout the pageant. The training of these children has required much time of some very busy women. Mrs. Edward Halley, Mrs. Donald Herwick, Mrs. George Clark and others deserve the thanks of the Church for their work in this respect and most of all the thanks of the parents of the children participating in the service.

The regular meeting of the officers and teachers of the Church School scheduled for Sunday evening will be postponed until further announcement.

The Senior Choir, under the direction of William Neblett, will meet for rehearsal this Friday, June 19, at 1-C Southway.

The Junior Choir, directed by Mrs. Donald Herwick, will meet Saturday to rehearse the Children's Day music. It is very important for every child who expects to sing in the choir on Children's Day to be present at this meeting. This will be the last rehearsal of the Junior Choir until fall.

The old-fashioned prayer meeting will be held Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the music room. This meeting is being led by a layman and all are invited.

The following are the young people who will unite with the church this Sunday:

OUR NEIGHBORS

Sally Meredith, her husband, and babe are vacationing in Virginia. They'll return some time next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thomas, 38-E Crescent Road, have just returned from their pleasant vacation in Fountain City, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Miles and son of Johnstown, Pa., spent the week end at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sheriff, Jr., 3-E Parkway Road. Mrs. Sheriff's brother will visit here for two weeks.

Al Senkus, a member of the Co-operator staff, is leaving this week to join the armed forces.

We are happy to learn that Miss Shirley Mitchell, 3-B Gardenway, is on the road to recovery.

There have been several parties in Greenbelt this past week.

The Cooperator staff gave a farewell party for Francis Fosnight, ex-editor, at the home of the Merediths.—Friends of Harry Hyman, one of the directors of the Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc., gave him and his wife a house warming at their new home in Cheverly.—Neighborhood children were treated to ice cream, cookies and other goodies at the birthday parties of Alice Carol Dickerman, who was 3 years old last Saturday, June 13, and of Peter Boggs, who was 4 years old on Sunday.

Families suffering from cases of measles, chicken pox, or whooping cough certainly have our sympathy. This year's epidemic has been longer and more serious by far than any previous year in town. We used to brag about having such a healthy community.

How is your garden growing? The rabbits are enjoying ours.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Benjamin, 21-A Ridge Road, entertained Mrs. Benjamin's aunt, Mrs. Anna Berlin of Baltimore, and Mr. Benjamin's sister, Mrs. H. Levy of New York, during their four-day vacation in Greenbelt.

Tennis Players Forming League Tonight, 10 p. m.

Tennis players interested in forming teams for league matches will meet tonight at 10 p. m. in the Elementary School. Only those present will be considered for teams, Recreational Director Ben Goldfaden has announced.

There will be a men's singles league, a women's singles league, and possibly a husband and wife if there is sufficient response.

Greenbelt now residing in Boston, are the proud parents of a 6-pound baby boy.

A surprise party was given last Friday night for Mrs. Lois Bowman by her first aid class. The party, which included Bingo, refreshments, and a gift for Mrs. Bowman, was held at the home of Mrs. Miles Bonnar.

We hear that Paul M. Dunbar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dunbar, 13-D Ridge Road, is now a full fledged radio technician in the Army Air Corps. He has received a private first class rating and is now working on the Army Radio Network in the Pacific Coast area.

Reps Down Mounts In League Tilt

The Reps tripped Mt. Rainier, 7 to 0, here last Friday night to stay undefeated in the County Softball League. The game went but five innings due to weather conditions.

Curt Barker pitched his usual steady game and was never in danger. He struck out five batters and allowed but two hits.

Barker hit a home run in the third inning when the Reps enjoyed a five-run spree. Bennet Beale, Ben Goldfaden and Barker drove in two runs apiece, the seventh coming in on an error. Bill Blanchard was the only player with two hits.

Reps Tie Rainier As Band Plays

Greenbelt's band and softball team helped celebrate the grand opening of Mt. Rainier's new softball park last Sunday. The band, after playing several numbers there, went to Hyattsville to serenade the Shamrocks' departing manager.

The game was called by mutual consent after seven innings had been played, score tied at two all.

Eddie Trumbule pitched fine ball, allowing only six hits and one earned run.

Shamrocks in 2 Games At Home This Week-end

Tomorrow the Shamrocks play the Navy Yard All-Stars on Braden Field. Several of the Stars play with the Maryland Aces in the County League.

Sunday the undefeated league leaders, Stanleigh Inn, come to Braden Field. The Shamrocks are in second place behind Stanleigh Inn and need a victory to stay in the first half running.

Softball Games Improve

In one of the best softball games of the year Franey and Annadale defeated Manhattan Auto Tuesday on Braden Field. The score was 3 to 1, with F&A scoring all three runs in the last inning. Cy Stewart, pitcher for the winning team, hit a home run with one to win the game.

Last night Greenbelt played the Surf Club at Washington Stadium. Tonight Greenbelt meets the Filipino All-stars here, and Monday Greenbelt tries Lansburgh at Washington Stadium.

THE ANSWER to the bottled beer curtailment is NATIONAL PREMIUM
-- a pale dry beer

Here is the great, true, premium beer—a beer which has proved its unusual quality by moving from the Atlantic to the Pacific and repeating and repeating and repeating—and growing and growing and growing in popularity.

THIS GREAT BEER IS TODAY'S ANSWER TO THE PROBLEM OF NOT ENOUGH BOTTLED BEER TO GO AROUND.

AND THE ANSWER IS PLAIN: one bottle of NATIONAL PREMIUM will do for two bottles of ordinary beer. It brings you greater richness, greater body and exquisite flavor. Just make this test—if you've been drinking two bottles of beer at a meal, turn to one bottle of NATIONAL PREMIUM. Serve it at about 38 degrees—not too cold—so that the rare aroma and bouquet are released. Enjoy the full, creamy foam—sip it slowly—get the full pleasure from each brilliant drop.

Sip your NATIONAL PREMIUM as the great critics sip their beer—with relish and discrimination. Drink for flavor—turn to NATIONAL PREMIUM. In bottles from coast to coast. On tap in the finer taverns, hotels and restaurants all over the town.

Shamrocks Trim Hyattsville For Holochwost

Magruder Park, Hyattsville, June 14—Vincent Holochwost's swan song struck a triumphant note in today's game. The departing manager pitched brilliant ball, in applying the whitewash to Hyattsville's Police Boys Club, while his Shamrocks scored 10 big runs.

Holly Honored
The Greenbelt band made a surprise visit to Magruder Park to give the big left-hander a rousing send-off. Just before the game, while the band played, Holly was presented with a fountain pen from the Prince Georges County League. On the bench, during the game, his team mates gathered around him and gave him a wrist watch as a token of their esteem.

For four innings it was a scoreless duel between Holly and Bill Bowers. In the fifth frame the Shamrocks, benefitting by four free passes, three errors, and two hits, staged a seven run spree.

Andrus, Davis Slug
The Big Green added three more runs in the eighth on some robust hitting by Julie Andrus and Wayne Davis. This pair took all hitting honors for the day; Andrus getting a single and double, while Davis collected three singles and a double. It was the second time this season for Davis to bang out four hits in a single game.

McDonald Alert
Holochwost, who had struck out six, walked three, and had permitted but five hits, weakened in the ninth canto and gave up three more hits and a run. The run, however, was nullified when Collins failed to touch third base on his way home, and the alert Micky McDonald called his hand to the umpire, thereby "keeping all Holly's goose eggs in one basket."

Brownies and Mothers Will Picnic at Lake

About 15 members of the Greenbelt Brownie troop, under Assistant Leader Mrs. Shirley R. Levine and some of the girls' mothers, are expected to picnic at the Greenbelt Lake next Monday.

The Brownies, it was announced, will meet at 10 o'clock in the morning in front of the Elementary School, and will hike to their desti-tion tank, and two sludge drying beds.

The entire system is semi-automatic, so that one man can maintain the operations even when the capacity is doubled.

One extra garbage truck and additional personnel are required for collection of trash and garbage from the new homes in town, but Mr. Rhodes sees no additions needed to present incinerator facilities. The town's incinerator will be kept burning 24 hours a day to take care of the increase. There were 140 tons of garbage and rubbish collected and destroyed last month.

Games, singing and telling stories will be the high lights on the program.
